

Spring 2012 Lecture Series

The Center for Turkish Studies and the Madison Association of Turkish Students present a talk by

JENNY WHITE

Associate Professor of Anthropology at Boston University

“Women's Rights and Opportunities in Contemporary Turkey”

Tuesday, February 21, 2012

4:00 PM at The Pyle Center, Room 309

(702 Langdon Street)

Open to the Public

Dr. Jenny White is an Associate Professor of Anthropology at Boston University. She is the author of three historical novels set in 19th century Istanbul. She is also the author of Muslim Nationalism and the New Turks (forthcoming 2012, Princeton University Press) and Islamist Mobilization in Turkey: A Study in Vernacular Politics (2002) (winner of 2003 Douglass Prize for the best book in Europeanist anthropology). Dr. White has been following events in Turkey since the mid-1970s.

Sponsored by The Center for Turkish Studies, Madison Association of Turkish Students, Department of History, Center for German and European Studies, Division of International Studies, and Global Studies