

Virtual Language & Culture Study At Your Fingertips

START LEARNING ARABIC, KOREAN, MANDARIN OR RUSSIAN

Virtual National Security Language Initiative for Youth (Virtual NSLI-Y), a program of the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, introduces U.S. high school students to languages critical to U.S. national security.

Virtual NSLI-Y is a 10-week, beginner-level foreign language and cultural experience for Arabic, Chinese (Mandarin), Korean, or Russian.

Successful candidates receive a scholarship to participate and will be placed into a virtual classroom with approximately 10 students and an experienced teacher to meet twice a week for 90 minutes per session.
