

CENTER FOR RUSSIA, EAST EUROPE, & CENTRAL ASIA SPRING 2021 LECTURE SERIES

2 / 4

On Civilization's Edge: A Polish
Borderland in the Interwar World

Kathryn Ciancia, University of Wisconsin-Madison

2 / 11

Guns to Butter: Economic Perceptions & Policy Preferences in Russia

Maria Snegovaya, George Washington University & Virginia Tech

2 / 18

Since 1989--Poland's Democratic Experience

Don Pienkos, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

2 / 25

Promoting US Policy in Eurasia--
A Practitioner's View

Caroline Savage, US Department of State

3 / 4

The Gendered Ambiguity of the Postcommunist Transitions

Janet Elise Johnson, Brooklyn College; Katalin Fàbiàn, Lafayette College; and Mara Lazda, Bronx College

3 / 11

Mixed Messages: Mediating Native
Belonging in Asian Russia

Kathryn Graber, Indiana University Bloomington

3 / 18

Putinism & its Discontents

Brian Taylor, Syracuse University

Queer Budapest: Sex, Society & the Illiberal State, Past and Present

3 / 25

Anita Kurimay, Bryn Mawr College

China & the Uyghurs: Cultural Genocide in the Name of Counterterrorism

4 / 8

Sean Roberts, George Washington University

Calling the Future: What Names in Russian and East European

Science Fiction Reveal

4 / 15

Sibelan Forrester, Swarthmore College

Technological Solutions for Complex Problems: Emerging Electronic Surveillance Regimes
in Eurasian Cities

4 / 22

Erica Marat, National Defense University

4 / 29

Eurasian Responses to the COVID-19 Crisis: Between Fact & Fear

Caress Schenk, Nazarbayev
University

All lectures held over Zoom at 4:00 pm Central Time. For more information and to register: creeca.wisc.edu/events