UW in Türkiye Crossroads of Civilizations

Step into the heart of a city that has shaped civilizations for over two millennia! Istanbul's unique location, bridging Europe and Asia, has shaped its identity as a melting pot of cultures, religions, and ideas for thousands of years. From Roman emperors to Ottoman sultans, and now as a modern global hub, this program will explore how Istanbul's geography has fueled its role as a center for trade, diplomacy, and cultural exchange.

- Explore themes ranging from art and architecture to religion, politics, and commerce to understand Istanbul's dynamic history and modern role as a NATO ally & economic powerhouse.
- Visit iconic landmarks, including the Hagia Sophia, the Grand Bazaar, Topkapi Palace, and the Bosphorus waterfront.
- Led by UW-Madison History & Law Professor Karl Shoemaker.
